Key Points

- Andrew Wilson, President:
  - Organising logistics of drug test kits.
  - EUSA accounts can be found online. They are controlled by the Board of Trustees, which has 5 elected members.

- Beth Fellows, VP Activities and Services:
  - Using #WeAreEdinburgh to engage wider community, such as BME students for Black History Month.
  - Inter-school sports teams will build community.
  - Wednesday afternoons off is a feasible idea, but some students might have to work later on a Friday as a result.

- Rosheen Wallace, VP Community:
  - There will be consultation with students regarding bus use, including, but not limited to, the KB Shuttle Bus.

- Stephanie Vallancey, VP Education:
  - Is working on consistency in marking schemes and feedback mechanisms.
  - A grant to help with hidden costs of university is a good idea.
  - Looking at having exam dates released earlier and at different forms of assessment.

- Oona Miller, VP Welfare:
  - The Disability Access Board has £15 million to spend on accessibility e.g. lift repairs.
  - ‘Tackling Elitism’ on Tue 1 October, 17:00-18:30, Lounge Bar at Teviot: event aiming to collaborate with students on how to make the university more accessible for students from a low income background.
